From the Pastor’s Desk

My bulletin articles have been pretty serious lately, so I feel like writing about something fun. I find myself looking back on my life as a priest so far. Here are some funny things that come to mind:

I get great and funny questions asked to me. “Do you ever wear clothes that are not black?” “Do you know the Pope on a personal, first-name basis?” The answer to each of these questions is “No” by the way. I can wear non-black clothes when appropriate like when I’m with my family or exercising. Also, I have seen the Pope in person but never close enough to shake hands with him. For some reason, he never calls me!

There are some things that I was never trained for in the seminary. Some of them include:
 --Holding a cardboard donkey and pretending to ride it as we had a Family Faith Night on Holy Week.
 --What to do when Christmas is practically snowed out.
 --Figuring out how to program the lights and electronic bells at the church. I’m still figuring this one out.
 --What to do when the parish, campus ministry, and our school have events at the same time. I have not figured out how to be at two places at once...yet!
 Once again, the list can go on and on and on.

Writing this has been fun and I hope I can always laugh at the humorous things God sends my way. I hope you can laugh at things in your life too. Nowhere in the Bible does it say that Jesus laughed, but I’m sure He did!

Mary, Mother of God and our patroness, pray for us.
 Fr. Beran

Home & Foreign Missions Collection is this weekend, February 11th & 12th. This Collection allows Catholics to support the development of the church where communities struggle financially or Catholic vocations and ministry require financial assistance. God has given us all we need and more, so it is right and just that we give something back by helping people in our own country and around the world to grow in the love of Jesus.

Becoming aware of the generosity of God and His total self-giving will prepare us to respond in practical, self-giving ways during Lent. Facilitator: Sr. Cecilia Polt, OSB. Bring your Bibles. Sunday, February 26 from 1 PM to 5 PM at the Immaculata Monastery in Norfolk. Suggested Donation: $10.

ST. MARY’S CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL...

WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET.

Mark Evetovich (Head Teacher)
 The next few months I would like to reach out to those who attended St. Mary’s. I’d like to know how your time spent here impacted your life. If you have a story to tell please call me at 402-375-0848. Thank you. Following is an excerpt from the Archdiocese of Omaha Catholic Voice:

“Having an education from a Catholic school has helped me in so many ways. Being part of a school that focused on me and achieving academically has impacted the way I’ve looked at life. I believe the one-on-one attention I received from teachers during that time was very helpful. I know there was always someone to talk with or someone who knew me personally. Having an education from a Catholic school gave me realistic observations of the world. I was able to job shadow a mentor, which gave me life skills and employable skills. I learned how to budget and how to fill out an application, all while learning about the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.”

Lavonda McClinton, (1994 graduate of Omaha Sacred Heart School), 31, Omaha Salem Baptist Church member.

We pray for abused and neglected children: that their circumstances will be known, their safety assured, and their sense of self-worth restored.

Thank you.

The weekend of February 18 & 19 Blest Art will be visiting our parish after all Masses to display hand-carved olive wood religious art made by Catholics in the Holy Land. Visit Blest Art’s Web site at www.BlestArt.org to preview art that will be available.
