Stewardship – June 3 “The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ...” - ROMANS 8:16-17. If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, should we not work to build up that kingdom? Should we not be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time, talent and treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

From the Pastor’s Desk

With Friday, June 1st being the 10th anniversary of my priestly ordination, I feel like taking a look back. Over these ten years there has been one recurring theme: expect the unexpected.

While getting ready for ordination, I wanted an ordinary first assignment. I did not want to be at the Cathedral or any place like that. Where did I end up being assigned? St. Cecilia Cathedral! I loved my four years there, but it was definitely not my plan. Luckily, God’s plans are better than mine.

After being ordained a few years, I got a very surprising phone call from the Archbishop’s office. I was asked if I was interested in becoming a chaplain in the Nebraska Army National Guard. This was, once again, a surprise since I had shown no interest in the military. With a brother already serving in Iraq at the time and after a few days of prayer, I decided to do it. I never expected to put on a military uniform, but there I was! I can’t even say how grateful I am for having served in the Army as a chaplain.

In April of 2006 I was surprised again with a phone call. This time from the Army to tell me I was being called to active duty for a year-long tour in Iraq. I expected to be deployed at some point, but you can never prepare for the reality of it. In late May, I reported to the 734th Transportation Battalion in Kearney, had a few months of training in Indiana, and then a year ministering to soldiers in Iraq. It was the most rewarding year of my life and a great honor to serve our country.

In August 2007 I returned to Nebraska and served as the Associate Pastor and helped with UNO Campus Ministry at St. Margaret Mary’s in Omaha. I expected to be a part of a parish, but helping with campus ministry was the surprise. I had no training and no experience. This would be a foreshadowing of things to come.

Then in May of 2008 I got another unexpected phone call. [See a theme here?] This time it was Archbishop Curtiss asking me to be the pastor of St. Mary’s in Wayne and help with campus ministry at my alma mater, Wayne State College. When I graduated from WSC, I never expected to come back to Wayne let alone become the priest there. Here I am!

“Expect the unexpected” has truly been a theme for the last 10 years of my life. On my ordination day, I had no idea what was ahead of me. However, God has led my life in wonderful directions. My life has been better than I ever could have planned it to be. God’s plans are definitely better than ours.

Mary, Mother of God and our patroness, pray for us.
Fr. Beran
