Archdiocesan Capital Campaign – Town Hall Meeting

Archbishop Lucas is planning a capital campaign to raise important funds for our parishes, schools, and ministries. Before he moves forward, he would like to hear your thoughts on the proposed campaign goals and structure. Please share your thoughts by attending this town hall meeting: Monday, August 27th from 7 PM to 8:30 PM at St. Michael's School Gym, 1315 1st Avenue, South Sioux City. The evening will include a brief presentation on the proposed campaign goals followed by Q & A. You will be asked to complete a brief survey, and your thoughts will guide the Archbishop as he determines the priorities for a capital campaign to strengthen our parishes, schools, and ministries. Don't miss this chance to shape the future of our Archdiocese. RSVP to Cindy Vasta at 402-557-5656 or cmvasta@archomaha.org. To learn more you can also visit www.archomaha.org/campaign.

From the Pastor's Desk

Katie (Harper) Sciba is a former St. Mary's parishioner who has felt called to share her thoughts through her blog at thecatholicwife.net. Here is one of her recent articles (edited for length):

“Watching the Olympics is such a passionate experience – the emotions I feel sitting in front of a TV are intense as I witness the world's most excellent athletes drive themselves to mind-blowing achievements. Last night I saw Oscar Pistorius rise to greatness racing without lower legs and McKayla Maroney fly off the vault reaching unimaginable heights. The talent these people have is incredible and I'll never understand the physical exertion spent throughout one's life in order to win the crown, so to speak, mostly because I've maintained a pretty jack-of-all-trades approach to the activities in mine. I had such a short attention span for many of my hobbies, tonight I watched the Olympics with a twinge of regret. I saw athletes my age and younger in possession of hardcore, natural skill, chiseled and developed over excruciating hours of hard work and dedication – I sat in my averageness wishing I that had found something in my life that had captured my passion; something calling me to push myself to the limit in order to achieve a greatness beyond measure.

Then I remembered my baptism, and one particular Scripture passage so dear to my soul:

“Do you not know that in a stadium all the runners run the race, but only one wins the prize? Run so as to win. Every athlete exercises discipline in all things. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. Thus I do not run aimlessly, I do not fight as though I were shadowboxing; No, I drive my body and train it, for fear that, after preaching to others, I myself should be disqualified. (1 Cor. 9:24-27)

One thing I can attest to loving all my life is Catholicism and though the only medal I'll wear around my neck is the Miraculous Medal, all of my life's work is in pursuit of the imperishable crown. So often in my spiritual life, I feel like I'm running aimlessly and shadowboxing. There are a million devotions I want to practice and virtues I want to develop – daily Rosary, faithful recitation of the Angelus, daily Mass, lectio divina, Liturgy of the Hours, frequent adoration, etc. But where do I start? I'll start one thing, and choose another all the while my soul is distracted and I feel little change within myself. It's in these instances that I feel weak boxing at nothing, a far cry from focused and excellent as a Catholic. It's easy to feel this way in wife-and-motherhood, too, with occasionally scattered, patched up efforts and little to show for them.

There is always hope in Christ, however, and so again I'm able to boast in him. Offering the Lord all that I have, he will take it, bless it, and use it to fulfill his will; and with him, I'll no longer be boxing at nothing, but driving my soul to a purpose and eternal reward. I have to abstain from sin and choose always God's will over mine. The best way for me to run so as to win is frequenting the Sacraments of Confession and Holy Eucharist and to maintain constant contact with God, breathing prayer as a runner would rhythmically inhale and exhale. It's too easy to become distracted in this world, but with my eyes and soul fixed on the Crucifix, I hope to receive a heavenly crown for the glory of God.”

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.
 Fr. Beran

A CHILD'S PRAYER FOR SCHOOL AND PLAY

Dear God, come with me to school; be with me in my lessons and in my play. Help me to be friendly and thoughtful to my teachers, careful in my studies and like Jesus in my words and deeds. Amen

Come Holy Spirit, help me in my lessons. Open my eyes and ears to your world about me; the sun and stars and space, numbers and letters and words, people, places, and ideas. Give me the will to listen and learn; the patience to work well; the courage to seek and to question. In gratitude I ask you to help my teachers so that they can continue to help me. Be close to me and teach me to enjoy learning and to do my very best. Amen

We pray for all priests and seminarians: that they may always deeply appreciate the gift of their vocation and be bold in proclaiming the Gospel of Life.
