Stewardship – November 11th - “I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.” (Mark 12:43) Notice that in the story of the widow’s mite Jesus did not reach into the treasury box and give the widow back her coins. If He did not exempt her from giving, surely He expects each of us to share what we have to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, and promote the work of the Church here on earth.

From the Pastor’s Desk

All throughout the month of November, we place the names of deceased loved ones in a book or in a basket. Those names are remembered at Masses all throughout November, a month that is dedicated to remembering and praying for the dead. The natural question is: Why do we pray for the dead?

Many non-Catholics do not pray for the dead, but only remember them. We pray for them because we believe in purgatory. You will not find the word “purgatory” anywhere in the Bible, but Christians have believed in it as long as Christianity has existed. Purgatory is for those who die in God’s friendship and are assured of salvation but who need to be purified from sin in order to enter heaven. There can be nothing bad in heaven. God is all good. He is goodness itself, so nothing evil can be in heaven where we are in God’s eternal presence. Logically, if we have small sins on our souls (not serious enough to deserve hell) we need to be purified (cleansed) of those sins so we can be completely good in heaven. The state of being cleansed by God from these sins is called purgatory (from the same root word as “purge” which means “to cleanse”).

Since all believers are connected in Christ, our prayers, fasting, and almsgiving are effective in helping others both in this life and in purgatory. The Sacrifice of the Mass is the preeminently way to pray for those who have died so that if they are in purgatory they may be helped by our prayers. If our loved ones are in heaven, then we ask them to pray for us. In Christ, the relationships we forge in this life do not end in death.

The word “purgatory” is NOT explicitly in the bible, but we know that: God is perfect holiness---Isaiah 6:3 “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts!” We are called to that same holiness---Matt 5:48 “So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.” Without perfect holiness, we cannot see God in heaven---Rev 21:27 “nothing unclean will enter it [heaven]” Atonement for the dead can be made by praying for them---2 Macc12:44-46 “...he made atonement for the dead that they might be freed from this sin”

Mary, Mother of God and our patroness, pray for us.

Fr. Beran

Sunday, November 18 (Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time): Daniel 12:1-3; Psalms 16:5, 8-11; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32.

Take a moment each day to read and reflect on these passages from Sacred Scripture. It’s a wonderful way to join our personal prayer with public prayer of the Church.

ST. MARY’S CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL... WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET

Billy Graham's Prayer For Our Nation

'Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, 'Woe to those who call evil good,' but that is exactly what we have done. We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values. We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery. We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare. We have killed our unborn and called it choice. We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable. We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self-esteem. We have abused power and called it politics. We have coveted our neighbor's possessions and called it ambition. We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression. We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment. Search us, Oh God, and know our hearts; cleanse us from sin and set us free. Amen!

We pray for military veterans, especially those who have been killed or gravely injured while serving: that their heroism and sacrifices will be honored and the needs of the families of the fallen and disabled vets will be met.

Phi Kappa Phi and Lambda Pi Eta are sponsoring a HATS & GLOVES DRIVE. The drive is looking for gloves, mittens, hats, and even scarves. The collections will be divided between Head Start and the Coat Closet/Food Pantry. We will be collecting until next Tuesday, Nov. 13. Thank-you.
