Stewardship – March 10th - “No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.” (Joshua 5:12) Throughout the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God’s blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES COLLECTION – MARCH 9th & 10th
 Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me (MT 25:40). Today, we are reminded of the gospel message to love all our brothers and sisters around the world and treat them with respect. The Catholic Relief Services Collection sees Jesus in victims of human trafficking, those who seek to change unjust laws, and those who need pastoral care and humanitarian assistance across the globe. How will you help Jesus in disguise? Please be generous in today’s Collection.

From the Pastor’s Desk

In my opinion, this is the toughest part of Lent. The initial energy is waning, and we might have already fallen or even given up. Here are some suggestions for you and me at this time in Lent.

1. If you have fallen or quit your acts of penance, start again. There is no prize for having a perfect Lent. The goal is to grow in our faith and it is never too late to start doing that.
2. Maybe the penance you gave yourself was too difficult. You might want to try simplifying it. It is better to do a few things for God very well than to fail doing too much.
3. Some people merely give things up for Lent. Do something for your spiritual growth and it might help you with the things you gave up. As you grow closer to God, giving up candy, pop, or whatever will take on a deeper meaning. The Stations of the Cross on Fridays (7pm) or spending time in adoration in church at some time on Friday is a nice place to start.
4. Confession. What greater place is there to go when we fall in sinful ways? It is a great place to get a fresh start and Lent is the perfect time to go. Especially if you haven’t gone to confession in a while, make Lent a time to change that.
5. If you are really struggling with your Lenten practices, have one friend or family member that you talk to about it regularly. This gives you some accountability and allows someone to encourage you when needed.

These are a few tips to get us through the toughest part of Lent. God bless. Mary, Mother of God and our patroness, pray for us.
 Fr. Beran

PARISH RECONCILIATION SERVICE

ST. MARY’S CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL...

WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET

St. Mary’s School is collecting Box Tops for Education. Clip Box Tops from hundreds of products such as General Mills, Betty Crocker, Pillsbury, Kleenex, Hefty, Juicy Juice, Totino’s, Land O Lakes, Yoplait, Cottonelle, Huggies, Ziploc, Scott, etc. Each Box Top Coupon is worth 10¢ for our school. Please turn in your Box Tops before the end of the school year. (Just to let you know the Box Tops have an expiration date, and we had to throw a lot of them away as some were as old as 2001!).

We pray that children whose parents are growing old will honor their love and sacrifices by seeing that their needs are lovingly met for as long as they live.

YOUR PRAYERS CAN SAVE A LIFE!

“Rescue those who are drawn toward death and hold back those stumbling to the slaughter.”—Proverbs 24:11

Planned Parenthood of Siouxland, 4409 Stone Ave., will be doing abortions on Tuesday, March 12th. Please come and pray with “The Helpers of God’s Precious Infants” anytime between 8 AM and 11 AM at the clinic. If you are unable to come in person, then please join us in spirit by listening to KFHC 88.1 FM radio who will be broadcasting live; “Tuesdays with Mommy” from 9am to 11am at Mary’s Choice.

In our walk to Jerusalem this last week, we walked a total of 537 miles. What a big leap from last week .so now we are somewhere in the Atlantic ocean. We are tired and anxious for what lies ahead of us, we do not know, besides, its getting windy and there are clouds on the horizon. Jesus reminds us: come to me, all of you who are tired and have heavy loads and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28). As long as Jesus is one of many options, he is no option. As long as you can carry your burdens alone, you don’t need a burden bearer. As long as your situation brings you no grief, you will receive no comfort. And as long as you can take him or leave him, you might as well leave him, because he won’t be taken half-heartedly. But when you mourn, when you get to the point of sorrow for your sins, when you admit that you have no other option but to cast all your cares on him, and when there is truly no other name that you can call, then cast all your cares on him, for He is waiting in the midst of the storm. (taken from The Applause of Heaven).
