Stewardship – August 25th “For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last.” Luke 13:30. Our standards in our society are so different from God’s standards. We often rate or rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards.

From the Pastor’s Desk

I have a potpourri of topics this week:
 --This weekend was the 5th addition of Holy Hackers. I want to thank all of those who helped organize it (Ron and Diane Gentrup, Ken and Jean Loberg, Steve and Jodi Lutt, and Brett and Mandy Parker) along with all those who participated. This event started with a novel idea: to have a parish event that was not about raising money, but was just about getting people together to have fun. See you next year at Holy Hackers VI.

--The parish is getting revved up for the Outdoor Mass and Picnic on Sunday, September 15th at 10am. Our Parish Pastoral Council, Board of Education, and others have been busy getting ready for it. It should be a great event. It will be a true celebration of our parish. That event will also commemorate the 60th anniversary of St. Mary’s School. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

--“That Man is You” will be a program taking place again this year. It will start on Thursday, September 12th. This is a great way for the men in our parish to grow in their faith. We had a great turnout last year and hope for even more men this year. The second year has all different presentations and topics, so it will benefit both those who came last year and men who are new to the program.

--On a more serious topic, I ask your prayers for the Christians in Egypt. From news reports this week, Christian churches and businesses owned by Christians have been under attack. Our Coptic Christian brothers and sisters need our prayers. We should also be grateful that we can’t even imagine what it would be like to be afraid of being attacked for our faith. Keep the people of Egypt in your prayers.

Mary, Mother of God and patroness of our parish, pray for us.

WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET

The third and fourth graders would like to teach you a simple prayer they learned. They like it because it’s easy to learn and remember, yet it says so much in just a few simple words:

Teach me to love,
 Teach me to pray,
 Jesus above, teach me your way.

St. Mary’s 3rd and 4th Graders

We pray for clergy and religious throughout the world: that through their powerful witness they may spread the Gospel of Life in preaching, counseling and service to others.

Hospitality: An Attitude of the Heart: September 12 - 15, retreat at Saint Benedict Center, Schuyler, with Father Volker Futter, OSB. “Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels” (Hebrews 13:2). We can learn from the hospitality of the world (the Martha Stewart version), but there’s so much more to hospitality and welcoming! It is a two way street, giving and receiving. It is an attitude toward ourselves, our families and those close to us, toward strangers, toward life, and even toward the earth and environment, that can grow in us—a way to happiness and to holiness. Starts Friday, 7:30 PM. More information, call 402-352-8819 or visit www.StBenedictCenter.com.

A Weekend Getaway for Couples - Fostering Faith and Friendship in Your Marriage, September 21-22,
