Stewardship – October 27th “...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” Luke 18:14
 Do we exalt ourselves? We do if we think that we get credit for any of the good things in our lives. As stewards it is important that we remember that every good thing on this earth is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity. Our hearts should be filled with gratitude.

Tend Thy sick ones, O Lord Jesus. Rest Thy weary ones. Bless Thy dying ones. Soothe Thy suffering ones. Pity Thy afflicted ones. Shield Thy joyous ones. All for Thy love’s sake. St. Augustine

From the Pastor’s Desk

In honor of All Saints’ Day (November 1st), here are some of their words of wisdom:
 --"Consider every day that you are then for the first time--as it were--beginning; and always act with the same fervor as on the first day you began." (Saint Anthony of Padua)
 --"Whoever sits in solitude and is quiet has escaped from three wars: hearing, speaking, and seeing. Yet against one thing he must constantly battle: his own heart." (Saint Anthony, Abbot)
 ---"The Most Blessed Sacrament is Christ made visible. The poor sick person is Christ again made visible." (Saint Gerard Majella)
 --"As birds, wherever they fly, always meet with the air, so we, wherever we go, or wherever we are, shall always find God present." (Saint Francis de Sales)
 --"Ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ" (St. Jerome)
 --"If we wish to keep peace with our neighbor, we should never remind anyone of his natural defects." (St. Philip Neri)
 --"Prayer reveals to souls the vanity of earthly goods and pleasures. It fills them with light, strength and consolation; and gives them a foretaste of the calm bliss of our heavenly home." (St. Rose of Viterbo)
 --"Holy Communion is the shortest and safest way to Heaven." (Pope St. Pius X)
 At a time when most of the celebrities we see are anything but models of virtue, the saints need to be our true role models. They are real people like you and me who show us what it means to truly live. May the intercession of all the saints in heaven aid us to be more like them and therefore more like Jesus.
 Mary, Queen of all Saints, pray for us.
