News and Notes from the Pastor's Desk

This week I am beginning a series of articles are the Seven Corporal Works of Mercy. These are seven practical ways to show the love and mercy of Jesus to others. These corporal works of mercy are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, shelter the homeless, care for the sick, visit the imprisoned and bury the dead. These are called “corporal” works of mercy because the word “corporal” comes from the Latin word for “body”. So these works of mercy help with the bodily needs of people. You can find the first six Corporal Works of Mercy in Matthew 25: 34-40 when Jesus tells us that whenever we do them (of fail to do them) to the least of His people, we do them (or fail to do them) for Him.

“To feed the hungry” and “to give drink to the thirsty” are closely related. Hunger and thirst are basic human needs. We need to eat and drink to live. Believe it or not, there are people in our community who struggle to get the food and drink they need. This year my eyes were really opened. I was asked to help with the Backpack Program last September. If you don't know, the Backpack Program is run by the Wayne Food Pantry and gives school kids food on Friday afternoons so that they have food to eat on the weekends. When I went to help, I was sure there would be a few kids involved in the program but I was surprised that there were more than a few. This experience is what motivated me to give one dollar for each Confession I heard last Advent to the Backpack Program.

The Backpack Program is just one example of efforts in our community to feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty. There is also the Wayne Food Pantry, which is run out of the Presbyterian Church and was started in conjunction with St. Mary's, and the Methodist Church's Food Pantry on the last Saturday of each month from 10-11:30am. All of these programs can always use donations and volunteers.

Beyond taking care of the immediate needs of people who are hungry or thirsty, we need to end the causes of poverty. Often times the poor are judged as being lazy or addicted to things like alcohol. In fact, the biggest percentage of the poor in the U.S. is the working poor. They work but still struggle to make ends meet. We can always strive to make sure people who are willing and able to work can find jobs that pay a living wage. To give someone food and water is one thing, but to end hunger and thirst is another.

As Christians, we are called to “love one another as Jesus loves us”. The Corporal Works of Mercy, including feeding the hungry and giving drink to the thirsty, are ways to show the love of Jesus.

Mary, Mother of the Poor, pray for us.

Fr. Beran

Take a moment each day to read and reflect on these passages from Sacred Scripture. It's a wonderful way to join our personal prayer with public prayer of the Church.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL...

WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET

This week marks the end of another faith-filled school year at St. Mary's. I have the privilege of working at a wonderful school that embraces its commitment to preparing students not only academically but spiritually. I have seen a tremendous growth in the school over the past four years, thanks to the support of the Parish. I hope to continue to see growth in the future.

Congratulations to Madison Kaup and Isaac Braun, our graduating 6th graders. I know these two will not only let their intelligence shine next year in the 7th grade but their spirituality as well.

I want to officially announce the retirement of Mrs. Anne Sty from full time teaching. We will be blessed in the future having Mrs. Sty as a substitute and resource for curriculum enhancement. The staff and I wish Mrs. Sty and her family to best of luck in the future.

I want to welcome our two new teachers for next year; Miss. Sara Jones, 3rd and 4th grades, and Mrs. Jilliane Allemann, half-time 5th and 6th grades. They will bring new ideas and a continued legacy of fantastic teachers to St. Mary's.

I hope and pray that everyone has a fun and safe summer, thank you.

Mark Evetovich Jr., Head Teacher

We pray that we might build a culture of life where every person is welcomed as a gift from God.

Thank You for Your Support of the Ignite the Faith Capital Campaign!

We have raised $223,056 or 78% on 146 pledges before last weekend. Thank you to all who participated! Your sacrificial gifts will allow us to keep our archdiocese vibrant for the years ahead and help support our parishes, schools and ministries across northeast Nebraska. (We still have more to do to reach our goal of $286,558 I know with more participation, we can get there.) If you have yet to make a gift, you can always do so by:

- Calling the campaign office at 402-557-5650.
 - Going to the website www.ignitethefaith.archomaha.org and clicking on the “Donate Now” button
 - Texting “IgniteFaith” to 313131 on your handheld device.
- You will receive a text message directing you to a secure mobile page where you can give.

Worried that once you start eGiving with Faith Direct you won't have anything to put into the offertory basket each Sunday? Fear not! Faith Direct provides offertory cards (shown) that you can keep in your wallet or purse and use at Mass just like you would that envelope. Please enroll today by visiting www.faithdirect.net. Our code is NE464.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen
