Through our daily decisions we have the opportunity to generously share our gifts and help those who may not be in position to help themselves.

News and Notes from the Pastor's Desk

Why do Catholics choose a saint as their Confirmation saint? Who is your Confirmation saint? Here is an article I found with the answer:

“As we go through our sacramental preparation for Confirmation, Confirmation saints are chosen to be a person we want to be like, as well as someone who can pray for us from heaven.

To aspire to be like a saint is the same as trying to imitate an actor, musician, or athlete; a confirmation saint is someone who we want to be like!

What many people don't realize is that there are good people to look up to within our Church, for us to try to be like as well. It is common for us to think that only adults are able to become saints, but that is wrong.

As a young teen in the early 4th century, Saint Agnes was martyred because she refused to denounce her faith. Saint Aloysius, a young Jesuit in the late 16th century, helped care for people who were sick with the plague, giving them care and love as they left this world. His close contact with the disease took his life soon thereafter. Both these young saints bear witness to having love of God as their first priority.

It is important to remember that as members of the Church, we are never alone, as St. Paul said, 'We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses' (Hebrews 12:1). These witnesses are the saints who continually intercede for us (CCC 956); in choosing a confirmation saint, we are choosing a special friend to intercede for us in heaven and after whom we can model our lives while here on earth.

You can't call up a famous person you want to be like and ask them for help, but your Confirmation saint is someone who you can talk to whenever you need them and they will always have your back!" (from lifeteen.com)

Have you asked your Confirmation saint for help lately?
 Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

Marketing Campaign for Catholic Schools

Many of today's parents have choices when educating their daughters and sons, yet too many are not choosing Catholic school. It's time the archdiocese as a whole said more about the fundamental difference a Catholic school can make in a child's life.

As most of you are aware, the Archdiocese of Omaha is leading a multi-media marketing effort on behalf of the 70 schools in our system. This new campaign, a product of extensive research, aims to increase school enrollment. The messaging is broad enough to be relevant to our very diverse audiences, yet it can be customized by individual schools to meet their specific needs and preserve their unique identities.

This campaign is not a lecture. It does not just "preach to the converted." It's a simple, contemporary, fresh and cohesive approach that speaks to parents about the value of Catholic education. The reaction in the message testing so far—by Catholic parents in our schools and by Catholic parents in public schools—has been overwhelmingly positive.

Humility is a virtue, but it should not be mistaken with being silent on the merits of a Catholic education. Our mission calls us to work alongside parents to instill the Gospel message within students—nurturing their holistic needs, teaching morals, developing deeper character, faith, and emphasizing discipline and accountability.

Be on the lookout for this exciting marketing campaign in the near future.

I also think about the children in the cars who read the signs. We never know how that will affect their decisions in the future. How can we not try--
