Thank you to everyone for your generosity of $7,100 to St. Mary's during Easter. Also thanks to everyone who made our Easter Triduum and Easter very special with music, decorations, and attendance. Because Jesus lives, we too shall live.

Stewardship –April 19 “Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, ‘Peace to you.’ But they were startled and frightened.” - Luke 24:36-37 Throughout the day we have many opportunities to “see the face of Jesus” in others and provide some “peace” in their lives. Just because the person is a stranger, maybe looks different than us or is someone we don't particularly care for doesn't let us off the hook.

News and Notes from the Pastor's Desk

In the coming weeks, many of you will celebrate relatives and friends graduating from high school or college. Do you wonder about faith-related gifts for them? Here are a few ideas for you.

1. A Bible. Even if the graduate does not read the Bible regularly (if ever), it is still a good thing for them to have. I remember having the Bible I got for Confirmation in a bin in my college dorm room. Honestly, the first 3 years of college, it just sat there. When my faith awakened, I found myself digging around to find it. I was glad someone gave one to me. You never know when a person will be drawn to the Word of God.

2. A Crucifix. Every Catholic's room should have a crucifix. It is a visible reminder of the love of God. A crucifix is like a summary of our faith in one simple image. These also make for good wedding presents, along with being great for high school and college graduates.

3. A good book. Whether it be a religious classic, like The Imitation of Christ or The Story of a Soul, or a book like Rediscovering Catholicism, every Catholic could use another good religious book.

4. Have a Mass said for them. Going to your local parish and having a Mass said for their intention is always a good idea. Never underestimate the power of prayer.

5. Information on the local Newman Center or Church. Often graduates will be going to a city that they don't know particularly well. In the card, you can include some information on the local church where they will be living or the Catholic Center at the college they will attend.

These are some gift suggestions for you. Graduation is a time of transition. Giving a reminder of God and their Catholic faith can help during their time of change.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

My name is Gabe Abts from Laurel and a student at Peru State College. For one of my classes we have to try and solve a community problem. I am working with the Sisters in Winnebago to help the Omaha Indian Nation in Macy. My goal is to collect donations of cleaning and health care supplies such as: shampoo soap, paper towels, disinfectants and Clorox wipes that would improve the children's living conditions. I will pick up the boxes on April 25th and with the help of the St. Augustine Mission in Winnebago distribute them to Macy. If you have any questions contact me at 402-360-2046 or if you have questions about the St. Augustine Mission go to www.staugustinemission.org. Thank you for your help. God bless you all.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOL...

WHERE FAITH AND KNOWLEDGE MEET

WHY CATHOLIC SCHOOL?

The mission of every Catholic school in our archdiocese is to awaken the God-given greatness in each child we teach. We uniquely achieve this by teaching to a student's mind and a student's heart. At Catholic school, we teach the biggest subjects. Subjects like Faith, Character, Discipline, Kindness, Excellence and Confidence, to name a few. These are enduring lessons that can last a lifetime.

We pray that the Holy Spirit may continually inspire our words and actions to build up a culture.

Here is an opportunity to give honor to your mother (living or deceased) for Mother's Day. The Wayne Area Right to Life is sponsoring a Mother's Day Ad in the Wayne Herald/Morning Shopper the week of Mother's Day. Please print your mother's name (or other honoree), on the sheet provided in the back of church. A $3 donation is suggested to pay for the cost of the ad. Please visit with Bonnie Hoffman at 402-287-2161 if you have any questions.

"Have I Been With You" Prayer Retreat is Saturday, April 25, 10:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m., at the Saint Benedict Center in Schuyler, Nebraska. Father Paul Hoelsing shows how American culture can affect our beliefs about prayer, and how to receive healing from this. Go to www.archomaha.org for more information and for a registration form.

Women's Discernment Retreat "Come & Find Out" for young, single Catholic women between the ages of 19 and 40 at Immaculata Monastery in Norfolk from Thursday, May 21st at 7 PM to Sunday, May 24 at 12 Noon. Join the sisters for prayer and community activities. Discover the JOY of being a Missionary & a Benedictine.

Marital First Responders training, will be presented at St. Leo the Great on Tuesday, April 28th from 10:00 – 1:00. Cost is $20.00 and includes lunch. Preregistration is required. Call Kay Buhrman, Coordinator Family Life Span and Bereavement at 402-551-9003, ext. 1304 or email at ekbuhrman@archomaha.org. This class will give you more confidence and effectiveness in dealing with people who talk to you about marital problems, from everyday complaints to major crises. This workshop teaches you how to be more intentional in conversations, how to be more useful, how to avoid common mistakes, how to keep boundaries, and how to steer someone to professional help when needed. Knowing how to react to people struggling in their marriages could be the difference between someone leaving a marriage or staying.
