News and Notes from the Pastor’s Desk

I want to thank all of those who came to my 40th birthday party last Monday evening. I know there were many others who were not able to make it but were there in spirit. Some people who helped make it possible were Patty Wurdeman, my parents, the Majestic Theater, Emilie Osten and others. The whole experience made me grateful to God for giving me life and very proud to be a part of this community. I looked around the building at one point and I found myself asking a question. What other community could bring such a diverse and vibrant group of people together? I saw people of different ages, occupations, and ethnicities. The answer to that question was simple, because no place could bring together all those people into one faith-filled group like St. Mary’s can. Seeing everyone there was like seeing a preview of heaven where we are all one with God and each other. It sounds like something a priest would write, but it is true.

With area schools starting, I encourage all of us to pray for this new school year. To promote prayer for teachers and students, I have printed out novenas to Saint Thomas Aquinas. He is the patron saint of students. If you want to take one and pray it for nine days, they are in the church entryway.

Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming Catholic or wants to learn more about the Catholic Church? If so, in early September we will be starting the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). This is a great time to have people who are interested call me. Amy Woerdemann and I like to meet with potential participants individually before we start, because each person comes with different backgrounds, interests, and questions. We want to be sure to meet their individual needs in the best way possible. If you know someone who would be interested in RCIA, give me a call at the office.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.
 Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

Fr. Beran

Needs-Based Grants for Our Catholic Schools

To date, nearly $1,700,000 from the Ignite the Faith Campaign has been awarded to 16 Catholic schools throughout the archdiocese for strategic initiatives that will improve and sustain them for the future. “This support comes at a perfect time for St. Bernard School,” said Rose Flores, business manager for St. Bernard Catholic Church. “We just completed developing our strategic plan, and one of our first goals is to create an integrated marketing strategy and communications plan to synchronize timing and placement of marketing initiatives, recruiting efforts, media/promotions and community events. The funding for a marketing professional will be invaluable as we look to polish our recruitment efforts, expand our Annual Dinner Auction and establish and promote an Annual Fund Program to provide tuition assistance for low-income students.” For more information on how these needs-based grants are strengthening Catholic schools, go to ignitethefaith.archomaha.org.
