News and Notes from the Pastor’s Desk

With the stock market going up and down (mostly down) lately, it causes some people to panic. I am far from being an expert on economic issues and I have no idea what is going to happen today, let alone in the coming weeks, months and years. Any time there is uncertainty, it can be very stressful for a lot of us. How can our faith help us deal with situations like these?

1. Look to the past. Our country has had its share of ups and downs. Have we gotten through them? Has God provided for us one way or another? Even looking at our own lives, we have all had good times and rough patches. Has God ever failed to see us through? Uncertainties bring out a lot of fears. Is our faith stronger than our fears? Are we going to trust in the economy and financial experts, or are we going to rely on God? I think of the parable of Jesus when He compares a house built on rock versus a house built on sand. Putting our trust in God gives us a rock foundation.

2. If you are worried about your finances, get advice from someone who is knowledgeable and who you trust. Being smart and prudent is not against our faith. Trusting in God also means trusting in the fact that God has given us reason and intelligence to make smart decisions. It is always fine to look at options and ask for the advice of experts.

3. Do not overreact. As the saying goes, “The only thing that is the end of the world...is the end of the world”. Going back to #1, our trust in God helps us to put things in perspective.

4. Pray. Tell Jesus about whatever fears or anxieties are on your heart. Don’t face these feelings and problems alone. Know that Jesus is here with us. Beyond telling Jesus about it, also listen to Him. Let Him tell you deep in your heart, “Do not be afraid” and “I am with you”. We are never alone. If you have a favorite saint or angel, turn to them too.

All the time, we are being invited to trust in God. On dollar bills, it says “In God we trust”. So let us never trust in money or in anything else. Let us trust solely in God.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

Fr. Beran
