Stewardship –November 8th - “I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.” (Mark 12:43-44) Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

As we pray and ask God to guide us, perhaps we will sense him stretching us beyond our comfort zone. We may feel Christ calling us to be more generous with our treasure by contributing toward the Archbishop’s Annual Appeal. As of November 2nd, parish households have pledged $7820. This year our goal was to involve 100 households, 37 households have currently pledged, and we are 46.3% toward our monetary goal. We may feel called to increase our generosity with our time or talents through many of the opportunities in our parish as well as in our lives. May we be open to hearing His voice and responding with a loving heart. Thank you for your generosity. Parish stewardship forms are in a file folder in the narthex. Archdiocesan forms are available at <https://give.archomaha.org> or in the file folder in the narthex.

News and Notes from the Pastor’s Desk

All of us have a heart for those who are hurting and going through tough times. However, we do not always know what to do when someone is suffering. What do we do when someone we know suffers a death in their family? What should be our response when a co-worker is in the hospital? Here are a few hints:

1. Do not let fear stop you! Often times we want to help someone but fear stops us. We may not want to bother them. We may wonder if our relationship is close enough to reach out to them. What if they are overwhelmed with visitors already? Let Jesus tell us, “Do not be afraid”. If you feel like sending a card, send it. If you want to visit someone in the hospital, you can call and see if they are up for visitors. I have never heard anyone say that they regret reaching out to someone. I have only heard them regret letting fear stop them from doing anything.

2. If you do not know what to say to someone who is hurting or who lost a loved one, that is OK. No one expects you to have the perfect words. There are no magical words that can be said to fix things. The big thing is to be there with them. If you find yourself saying clichés like, “My heart goes out to you”, there is nothing wrong with that. Whatever you say, the person will know you are saying it because you care.

3. Do small things to help them. Bringing food over to the house, shoveling the family’s sidewalks when it snows, or even giving them a hug are beautiful and thoughtful gestures. I always love seeing people spontaneously doing kind acts for others. These are small things but they show a great amount of love. They are ways of showing God’s love.

4. Do not forget to pray. So often we want to do something to help, which is great. The problem is when we forget that the biggest thing we can do is pray for them. Never underestimate the power of prayer. You can offer to pray with them. You can pray the rosary for their intention. Whatever you do, do not forget to pray. God cares about them even more than we do. Jesus has a special love for those who are sick and suffering a loss. Place those going through tough times into the hands of Jesus.

While we may not always know what to do when someone is going through a difficult situation, we should not let it stop us from doing something for them. We are called to show the love of Jesus in big or in small ways.

Mary, Mother of God, pray for us.

Fr. Beran

Dear God, Please bless the veterans who wore the faded uniform. May they know the peace of a career well-served, and service completed. Give them our thanks for the doors opened, paths paved, and battles fought. Give them our thanks for the freedom preserved, future defended, and the ideals embodied. Bless the veterans who defended our country with strength and selfless devotion. Amen
