Stewardship –January 17th. “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” (1 Corinthians 12:7). St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God’s plan; helping to do His work here on earth? Remember that if you don’t do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it.

Your contribution could be the one to put us at or over our goal. Now is the time to act as only a few weeks remain to make commitments. As of Monday, January 11th, our parish was at 98.8% of its goal for the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. That percentage reflects pledges and gifts to-date from 62 of our parish’s households plus a very significant pledge from one anonymous donor from outside of the parish. To-date pledges and/or gifts amounting to $16,675 have been towards our goal of $16,872.65. Thank you to all who have already submitted their responses to the appeal. If you have not yet had a chance to respond, commitment forms are available in a file folder in the entryway of the church or may be requested from the parish office or you may submit a gift pledge at <https://give.archomaha.org/> if you prefer to make your commitment online. We are hoping to have at least 100 of our parish's 340 + households participate in this year's annual appeal.

The twelve days of Christmas culminate with the celebration of the wonderful feast of Epiphany. We are thankful for all the generous gifts that you provide to our parish, but realize that you cannot be with us every Sunday of the year. Please consider using our secure electronic giving program Faith Direct. Faith Direct will automatically process any offertory or second collections donations of your choosing. You can sign up online at www.faithdirect.net using our church code: NE464, or by mailing a paper enrollment form available in the parish office.
He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God. Micah 6:8

News and Notes from the Pastor’s Desk

Over the last few weeks, there is rarely a day that goes by where someone does not ask me about my move. In fact, yesterday I was getting gas and someone in the community asked me, “Haven’t you left yet?” The answer to that is, “No”. Since my move seems to be on people’s minds, I want to answer some of the questions I have been asked.

Q: When do I leave for Winnebago? A: I will become the Director of the Saint Augustine Indian Mission in Winnebago when the priest movements take place this summer. It is normally in mid-to-late June. Last year that new assignments took place on July 1.

Q: Who is going to be coming to Wayne? A: It is not decided yet. Archbishop Lucas and the Priest Personnel Board determine where priests are assigned. They are just beginning the process for next summer. Since my move has been public since last May, Wayne will be one of the first places to be filled, probably. Normally priest assignments are announced sometime in April or May. When I am allowed to tell you, I will let you know.

Q: Am I excited to go to Winnebago? A: No and Yes. I am not excited to leave Wayne. Having gone to WSC for 4 years and being the priest here the last 8 years, Wayne is my home. Especially since my family moved a lot while I was growing up, Wayne is by far the place I have lived the longest. This is truly my home town. The thought of leaving here makes me sad. At the same time, I am looking forward to learning more about the culture and people of the Omaha and Winnebago Tribes.

Q: What am I doing to get ready for the move? A: I have already started to get things ready for the next priest to come here. I am putting together a “transition book”, which has information about committees, major fundraisers, where to get hosts and wine, etc. I will also work with some of our major groups to make sure the change goes smoothly. In order to make the next priest’s life more manageable, I have requested more paid help and an increased budget for WSC Campus Ministry (which is funded by the Archdiocese of Omaha). It is yet to be seen if those requests will be granted.

Those are some of the questions I have been asked lately. Please pray for me and St. Mary’s as we prepare for this transition. Mary, patroness of our parish, pray for us.

Fr. Beran
Little Saints is a program for young children during the 10 AM Mass on Sundays. Toddlers through preschoolers can go to the hall, discuss that Sunday’s Gospel reading, and do an activity. They rejoin their families before the collection. We are looking for adult volunteers to help once every other month. If you already volunteered, please check the calendar at the back of church for your date or to sign up for one. If you would like to sign up or have questions, call Mandy Parker at 402-369-0557.

THANK YOU for the prayers and financial support of $1,466 to the Seminary Collection last weekend. The Archdiocese of Omaha is currently blessed with thirty men studying for the Priesthood.
