From Your Pastor ~ Fr. Mark Beran

From the Pastor's Desk:

--I want to thank everyone who came to my "Going Away Party" last weekend. Thanks also go out to everyone who helped put it on. It was a wonderful occasion. If you didn't make it, I know you were there in spirit. Plus, you are stuck with me for two more weekends so I am not gone yet.

I feel truly loved and appreciated. Of course, I have always felt that, but I feel it even more intensely now. God has truly blessed me by calling me to attend WSC and then to serve here at St. Mary's. No community in the world has touched my heart or been so pivotal in my life as Wayne has been. This will always be my "home town".

--This Sunday is Father's Day. Along with thanking my own father and being grateful for all of you fathers out there, it is also an honor to share the title of "Father" with you. When I first became a priest, it was weird being called "Father". At the same time, it is an honor. As a priest, I get the pleasure of being a part of your families at their biggest moments. Feeling connected to your families and doing what I can to bring people closer to God makes me feel like a true "Father".

--The 2nd Annual I-80 Collar Series is this Sunday (June 19th) at 5pm at Werner Park in Papillion. The Omaha and Lincoln priests, including me, will be playing. All proceeds go to promoting vocations to the priesthood. It is a lot of fun! You might even get to see me make a fool of myself. Tickets are $10 or $30 for a whole family.

Mary, Mother of God and our patroness, pray for us.

Your prayers are needed.

Last Friday five women entered Planned Parenthood, presumably for abortions. One young Hispanic girl was brought in by a woman who did not appear to be her mother. As they left, the woman indicated that the girl did not go through with the abortion.

Another couple drove by several times slowly, loitered in the area, and left. We never know when someone may observe the people praying near the driveway and change their mind.

In Sioux City, Iowa, abortions are scheduled for the following days Friday June 24th, Friday July 15th and Friday July 22nd. Your presence could just be that hope a desperate mother may be looking for upon her arrival. Please join us at Mass in the chapel at Mary's Choice beginning at 8:15am on the abortion day. We ask for prayer warriors to try and come at any time during the hours of 9 am and 1 pm.

Please call the parish office if you would like to help clean the rectory before Father Jeff Mollner arrives. 402-375-2000
