From Your Pastor ~ Fr. Jeff Mollner

This time of year is full of excitement. The kids are back in school, high school sports are starting up, and the weather this time of year brings is no exception. This past week we experienced another heavy rain, and with it some unwanted water found its way into our grade school. It wasn't good, but it certainly could have been worse. Roncalli Catholic High School in Omaha had close to 800 gallons of water flood their gym this week. It was a reminder that no matter how much we plan and how much we think we can control our lives there are always things that catch us off guard.

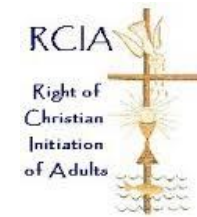

How do we handle those times when the water, either real or symbolic, begins to rise around us? The answer is simple, we need help! Last week I had to call in help to deal with the water in the school, and I would like to thank Jeff Brady for bringing some sandbags over to help shore up the water and Kirk Hochstein for coming over to check on the problem. No matter what is going on in our lives we need to have people we can rely on to help get us through the tough times. One of the worst things we can do is try to handle all of our problems ourselves. Of course, this also means we need to be there for others. Sometimes we have to reach out to those in need if they aren't asking for the help they need. This week would be a good time to think about those two things; do I seek the help I need from others, and do I reach out to those around me in need?

One of the most important ministries of our parish is the education of our youth. For the past couple of weeks I have been asking for volunteers to help teach Religious Ed for our K-8 students. We have had a few people respond, but we are still in dire need of more teachers. So please prayerfully consider helping with this rewarding and life-giving ministry in our parish. If you have any questions or would like to find out more please contact the parish office.

Mary Mother of God, Pray for us.
Fr. Jeff Mollner

If you or anyone you know is interested in joining the Catholic church - please have them contact the office at 402-375-2000.

We will be starting RCIA classes in September.
We would love for you to join us!

We would like to get our prayer shawl ministry going again. The shawls are created by loving individuals who pray during the entire process. Those who have received these shawls have been uplifted and affirmed, as if given wings to fly above their troubles. Please consider joining us. If you have any questions please call Ann Witkowski at 402-375-0223 or the parish office at 402-375-2000.

St. Mary's Family Rosary

Starting this Fall, families are invite to come together for prayer, fellowship, fun and food! Each month a parish family will host a Rosary and all parishioners are invited to join and if they'd like bring a snack to share. This is a great way to share our faith and devotions with the next generation!

The kickoff Rosary will be held at Jerry and Linda Dorcey's farm where there will be plenty of room for kids to play and animals to see after we pray. This will be Sunday, September 18th at 2:00. If your family would be interested in hosting a Rosary please call Becca Leatherdale (612-845-7301) or the parish (375-2000) office to request your month!
